

Simply Movies

Data Understanding

Contains information related to films

- Release time
 - Revenue
 - Gross income
 - Budget
 - Location of release
 - etc...
-

Data Distribution

This data spans from 2010 to 2018, with over 3,000 entries

The average Return on Investment is 41%

What's the average budget of a large scale film?

166 Million!

How do we maximize profit and minimize risk?

Points of Interest

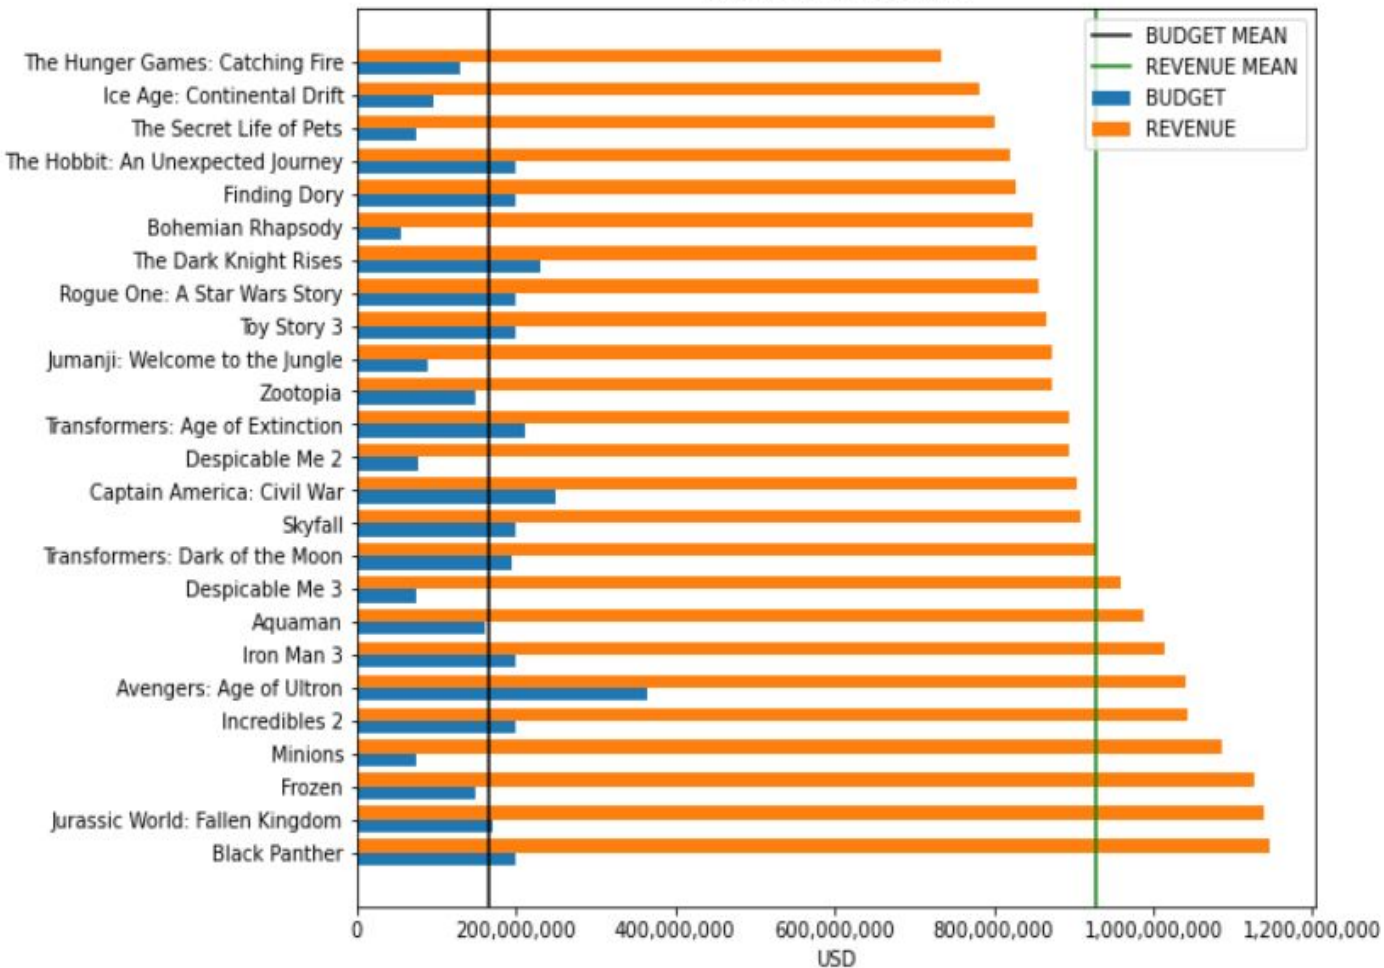

The metrics used for success

- Revenue
- Genre
- Release Window

Revenue

- Larger budget \neq more revenue
 - Spending too much can impact gross income
 - Middle ground of 166 million
- A worldwide audience maximizes potential revenue

BUDGET vs. REVENUE

Higher budget

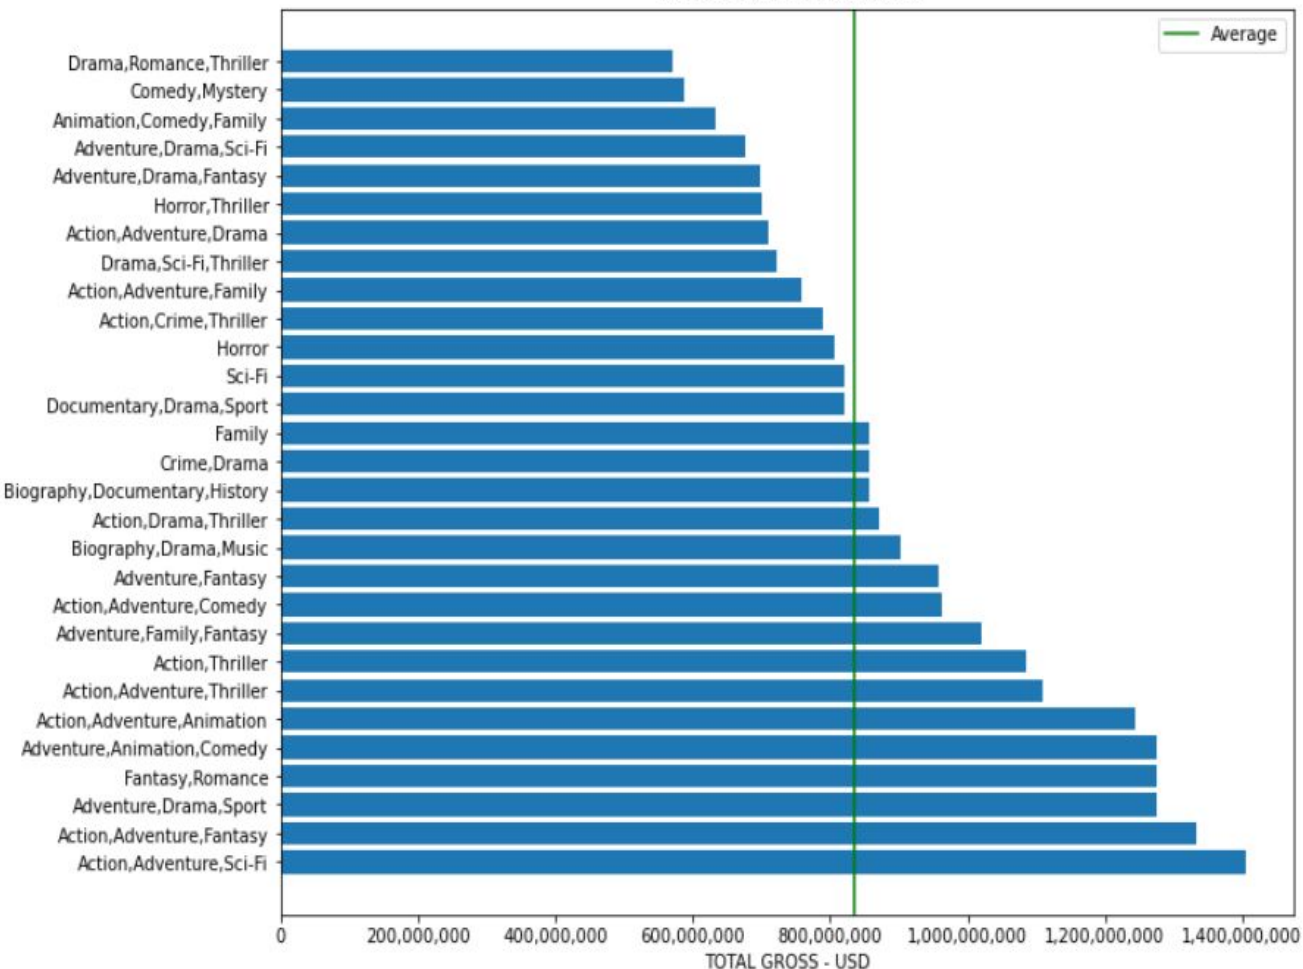

Higher revenue

Genre

- Action/Adventure/Sci-fi
- Type of story matters
 - Hero's journey
 - 12 steps of Joseph Campbell

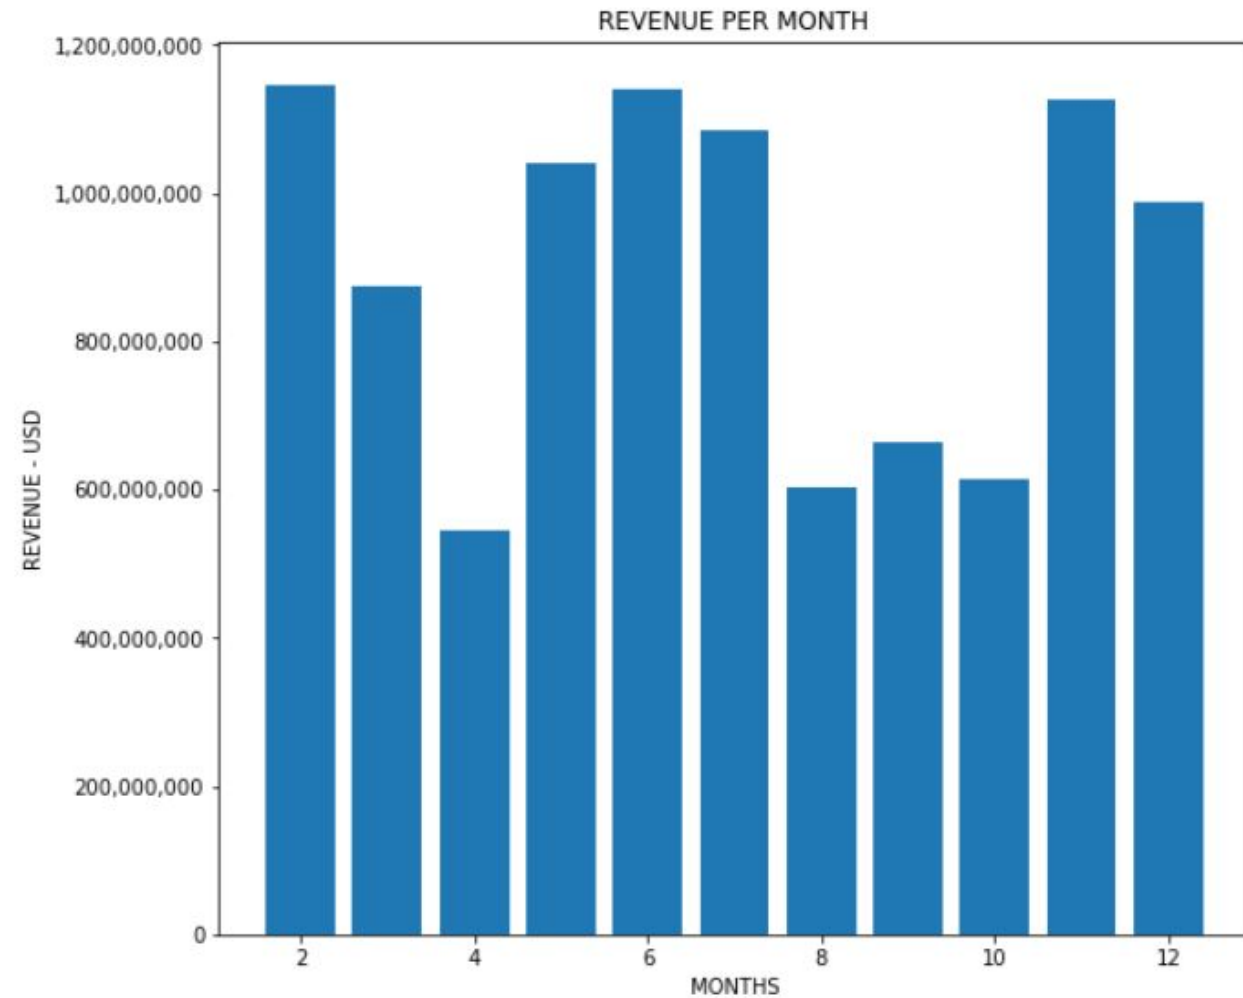

TOTAL GROSS PER GENRE

Action/Adventure are in the majority of the top grossing genres

Release Window

- Release films in either :
 - The holiday season (Christmas)
 - Mid-year (summer)

Most films release near the holiday season

Recommendation Summary

- Budget
 - 166 million
- Genre
 - Action/Adventure/Sci-fi
 - Hero's journey
- Release Window
 - Holiday season
 - Mid-year

Thank you!

Questions?

Contact information

Email : darrynj12@yahoo.com

